

DESCRIPTION

DPZ-EUROPE

In alliance with regional firms based throughout the continent, DPZ-Europe provides masterplanning and design services for a wide variety of projects. The firm's network of skilled practitioners is extensive and can be tailored to fit the needs of clients that range from government agencies and development companies to individual landowners.

DPZ-EUROPE is a partnership of DPZ practitioners and collaborators who are committed to the skills and techniques of traditional urbanism. With a combined total of over 30 years of practice, DPZ Europe's experience spans the history of the revival of traditional urbanist planning and design, including new towns and communities, redevelopment projects, and sustainable design.
